

A Short Biography

KarimaGita Erickson

International Sufi Movement of the United States of America

KarimaGita Erickson has studied the teachings of Hazrat Inayat Khan and the Path of Universal Sufism for more than two decades. She has a heartfelt dedication to The Message of the Unity of Religious Ideals and Spiritual Liberty, introduced to the western world by Hazrat Inayat Khan. KarimaGita presently serves the International Sufi Movement as Assistant Secretary of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood work for the Western Hemisphere and Assistant Secretary of the Inner School in the USA.

Travels to Europe and India have offered KarimaGita intercultural and inter-religious experiences which combined with her Christian heritage and studies of Inayat Khan's lectures support her life long ideal of living with respect for all religious traditions and seeking deeper understanding into the Truth that unifies the many spiritual paths of the world.

As a professional designer and design educator for over twenty years, KarimaGita has worked in firms in New York City, Chicago and Kansas City, and has received honored recognitions by the design profession.
